

Bereavement Policy

Adopted December 1999:

Given the emotion and sentiment involved with this issue, as well as the complexity of these situations and the limited resources of the club, it is best that the CSC Board not be involved with or feel compelled to offer donations/gifts to the bereaved. However, in keeping with the spirit and camaraderie of a membership in the club, the CSC will offer its communication resources to announce the loss to its membership.